

Assessment & Strategic Planning adheres to all university-wide policies including areas such as risk management, confidentiality, integrated communications and marketing, information and data confidentiality, the equal employment opportunity policy, and human resources.

Assessment & Strategic Planning is committed to fostering a welcoming, supportive, accessible, equitable, and inclusive environment free from bias or harassment that is consistent with the values of Auburn University. We aim to be of service to the departments of Auburn University's Student Affairs division as they cultivate a welcoming and meaningful student experience reflective of the Auburn Creed. Assessment & Strategic Planning does not discriminate on the basis of race; color; national origin; sex; disability; age; cultural identity; ethnicity; nationality; citizenship; family educational history; political affiliation; religious affiliation; sexual orientation; gender identity and expression; marital, family, social, economic, place of residence, or veteran status; or any other basis included in codes, laws, and institutional policies.

Assessment & Strategic Planning staff members meet annually to review departmental CAS standards and best practices, including the a review of the AU Personnel Manual and AU Policies.

We adhere to ethical industry standards provided by the ACPA/NASPA Professional Competencies, ACPA ASK Standards and SACSCOC.